PRICE THREE CENTS

TERRIFIC BLIZZARD.

It Sweeps Over Some of the Western States, Seriously Impeding Travel.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 17.—After midnight a genuine blizzard set in, and this morning the people found the streets and sidewalks so badly blocked that travel was next to impossible. The reports indicate that the blizzard began in western Minnesota and swept east and south through Wisconsin and Iowa. Railroad travel is greatly impeded and street cars find it almost impossible to run. The wind is blowing hard and drifting snow as fast as the streets and walks are cleared. No such storm has occurred so early in the season for years.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 17.—A special from Green Bay says the barge Dixon, Captain Robinson, of the Justice Field's tow, foundered off Keweenaw this morning. Two seamen were drowned. Another of Field's barges is riding the breakers and flying a signal of distress. The crew of the schooner Ishpeming are awaiting orders at Escanaba.

Later advices from Keweenaw states that the barge Emerald, another tug of Justice Field's consorts, foundered at noon. Five lives lost.

ST. IGNACE, Mich., Nov. 17.—During a terrible gale and snow storm last night the schooner P. S. Matiah, loaded with coal, ran on the beach and will go to pieces. Another schooner is ashore across the point, four miles from here.

The American Humane Association in Convention.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 17.—The State Humane association, composed of delegates from the various State Humane societies, or Societies for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals and Children, met at the Grand hotel in annual convention today, with G. E. Gordon in the chair. About fifty delegates were present. Among the number is Mrs. Hendricks, widow of the late Vice President Hendricks. After formal addresses of welcome by the mayor and others, the association listened to the reading of reports of the work accomplished during the past year.

MURDER!

One Villain Who Comes Out First Best in a Domestic Drama.

WHITE RIVER, Ont., Nov. 17.—Richard O'Brien, a Canadian Pacific railroad employe, was found by Charles Williams, a storekeeper, in bed with Mrs. Williams Sunday night. Williams tried to horse-whip O'Brien, whereupon the latter shot and killed Williams and the latter's aged father and mother and two little children, finishing by stabbing Mrs. Williams, who died soon after. O'Brien is in jail.

Fire Record.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 17.—A fire last night in the Ganahl Lumber company's yards on Lombard and Second streets, caused a loss of $20,000, fully covered by insurance.

PHIL ARMOUR.

An Attempt to Poison the King of Pork Packers.

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—The statement that an attempt was made a few days since to poison Phil Armour by two men who are alleged to be sympathizers with the stock yards strikers, was confirmed by that gentleman. "I don't care to talk about it," said Mr. Armour, "at least not just at present. You may say, however, that the story is quite true."

Masonic Gathering.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 17.—Delegates from all relief boards in the Masonic order in the United States to the Masonic Relief association met this morning at the Southern hotel to discuss plans for more efficient work. The object of the association is to prevent the commission of fraud upon subordinate lodges by those who are not worthy of relief.

SALOON MEN.

They Are Driven From the Liquor Traffic in Iowa by Court Injunctions.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 17.—The saloon injunction cases in this term of court are about finished. One hundred and two permanent injunctions have been granted. A large proportion of the parties enjoined have gone out of the business since the temperance writs were issued, and many have left the city. In twenty-three of these cases writs of abatement have just been placed in the sheriff's hands, and it is expected that after he has done his duty, in accordance with the orders therein contained, open saloons in Sioux City will be a thing of the past. The saloon men are becoming more and more inclined to obey injunctions of the court without any hostile demonstrations.

OVER AT LAST.

The Great Stock Yards Strike Ended and Quiet Reigns Once More.

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—The situation at the stock yards is perfectly quiet and orderly this morning. The old men are going back to work as fast as places are found for them, and there are no indications of further difficulty. An order has been issued relieving the First regiment from duty. The Second regiment will remain a few days longer.

Iron and Lead Discovered in Indiana.

WABASH, Ind., Nov. 17.—Both iron and lead ore have been discovered at Denver, fifteen miles northwest of this city. The ore appears on the surface in immense quantities, and can easily be mined. It assays nearly ninety per cent. pure. A mining company made up of leading citizens is being formed.

FIRE DODILY.

Forcible Ejection of an Indiana Auditor.

COLUMBUS, Ind., Nov. 17.—It seems that the election troubles in Indiana have just begun. Yesterday, at Shoals, Mike Tracey, the democratic auditor elect of Martin county, demanded possession of the office, which was refused by Colonel Brooks, the old auditor, and a republican, who claims that his time does not expire till the 1st of March. Tracey at once secured help, and after a stormy time ejected Brooks from the office, which he now holds by barricade.

The commissioners of Martin county also, yesterday, appointed Thomas Gates treasurer. Young Gates is the son of John G. Gates, elected treasurer at the last election, but was burned to a crisp in a hotel that was set fire on the night of the election, while sleeping with auditor Tracy, who escaped by jumping from a second story window.

Distemper Among Indiana Draft Horses.

DECATUR, Ind., Nov. 17.—Several cases of distemper of a malignant type have broken out in the western part of Adams and Wells counties. This section of the state has the finest draft horses in the west, and should the disease spread, as farmers fear it will, the result will be very disastrous.

Mrs. Harriett Chittenden, Mrs. E. L. Chittenden and daughter, Miss Hytie, are expected home this evening.

Justice Ryan fined Monroe Slater for striking a child of Wm. Nichols.

Dorus H. Armant and Annie Powers have been licensed to wed.

As a suppressing gag, "Ring off" has taken the place of "Give us a rest."

Geo. Huber is charged with stealing a ring from Emma Stapleford and the grand jury will attend to him.

Visitors at his office are smoking with the genial Sheriff Nelson today.

Arba J. Burrus, who attempted to murder Mrs. Ray Goode and Miss Lillian T. Walters in front of Dun's mercantile agency at Chicago, the evening of Oct. 28, 1885, and who shot a Chinaman in Fort Wayne, was yesterday afternoon brought into Judge Anthony's court for trial, having been confined in the county jail for over one year at Chicago. He pleaded guilty, but has not been sentenced.

Rev. T. J. Butler, D. D., of Chicago, is in the city, the guest of Bishop Dwenger. Rev. Dr. Butler lectured in Library hall St. Patrick's day, two years ago, to an immense audience, and both he and his lecture are favorably remembered by Fort Wayne people. During the late civil war the Rev. Father was for nearly three years chaplain in the famous Irish brigade, commanded by the gallant young hero, General Mulligan, and went through the Missouri campaign, and also that of West Virginia and the engagements about Shenandoah, Cumberland, Norfolk and other places. The Rev. Doctor is returning to Chicago on his way home from a three months' tour of Europe.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Senator Voorhees on the Indiana Contests.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 17.—The correspondent of the Louisville Courier-Journal telegraphs his paper:

Senator Voorhees has returned from the perturbed and anxious land of Hoosier. In answer to the inquiry of your correspondent to-day about the legislature, he said:

"We have the legislature by two majorities on joint ballot, and I have no doubt but that we will hold it."

"But suppose, senator, that the republicans throw out enough members of the house to reverse the majority?"

"Yes, but I do not think they will dare to do anything of that kind. They know very well that it would not be submitted to by the people, irrespective of party."

I trust that Senator Voorhees is correct in his opinion, but I suspect that he is more anxious and doubtful about the situation than he is inclined to admit. Senator Voorhees knows very well that the desperate gang of republican leaders who control the party interests in Indiana will dare to do anything to keep Ben Harrison in his seat. If the Indiana democratic leaders lose a single trick at Indiana this winter they will lose the senator that they are justly entitled to.

SUSTAINED.

The Democratic Party Secured a Hearty Endorsement in November.

Philadelphia Times.

Taking the vote of the states as cast this year for state officers, and for congressmen where no state officers were to be elected, the electoral vote of the Union would foot up as follows:

Dem.	Rep.
Alabama.....10	Illinois.....22
Arkansas.....7	Indiana.....15
California.....8	Iowa.....13
Colorado.....3	Kansas.....9
Connecticut.....6	Maine.....9
Delaware.....3	Massachusetts.....14
Florida.....4	Michigan.....13
Georgia.....12	Minnesota.....7
Kentucky.....13	Nebraska.....5
Louisiana.....8	Nevada.....3
Maryland.....8	New Hampshire.....4
Mississippi.....9	Ohio.....23
Missouri.....16	Oregon.....3
New Jersey.....9	Pennsylvania.....30
New York.....36	Rhode Island.....4
North Carolina.....11	Vermont.....4
South Carolina.....9	Virginia.....12
Tennessee.....12	Wisconsin.....11
Texas.....13
West Virginia.....6	Total.....108

Total.....203
It will be seen that the democrats carried twenty states and the republicans eighteen. Oregon is classed with the republicans, although the people elected a democratic governor this year by a large majority, but it was admitted on a local issue. The republican congressman was elected by the usual party majority, and the state may be classed as republican. The other state that is rather an accident in the democratic column, is Colorado, where the democrats carried the governor and the legislature, but on local issues. California is very close, but her governor and legislature are democratic, and the state is fairly entitled to be so classed.

Virginia is classed in the republican column with her twelve electoral votes. There was no state ticket elected there this year, and there was a general break up in the election of congressmen over the tariff and internal revenue issues, by which the republicans have a majority of the delegation and an apparent majority of the popular vote. It is entirely safe to say that Virginia would have voted democratic had there been a president to elect, and that Colorado would have voted republican.

Changing the footing by the transfer of Virginia to the democratic and Colorado to the republican column, the electoral vote of this year would stand—democratic, 211; republican, 190, allowing Indiana to be republican and California democratic, both of which are about equally doubtful.

THE STATE.

What is Said in the Field of Politics and News About Us.

The statistics from the Indiana election indicate that far too many democrats in the Hoosier state failed to do their duty November 2. There is a falling off of nearly 30,000 votes, and the republican figures do not indicate that they went to that party.

The clothing firm of H. Meyer & Co.,

of Michigan City, has been seized by the sheriff on claims due Chicago and New York creditors. The liabilities aggregate $9,000, with assets of $6,500.

Father Harmon, assistant rector of the German Catholic church of Lafayette, and a distinguished German scholar, has just completed the task of translating Gen. Lew Wallace's work, "Ben-Hur," into the German language, with the author's consent. It will be published in Germany.

New pensions have been granted to Conrad Roth, of Cypress; John B. Stout, of Dupont; James Jordan, of Orleans; Laura A. Votry, of Fort Wayne; Melinda J. Hill, of Weaver; Samuel Dougherty, of Plainville. Pensions re-issued: John Shertz, of Madison; Wm. Kelp, of Clinton; W. H. Burris, of Milford; Martin Summers, of Zionsville.

Weather Indications.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—The weather indications are as follows:

Kentucky, rains, decidedly colder, with cold wave.

Ohio, rain or snow, colder winds, with cold wave.

Indiana and Michigan, rain or snow, decidedly colder.

Professor Foster predicts that a storm of considerable force will prevail in the central portion of the United States this week, crossing the Mississippi river about Thursday.

INDIANA.

The Contest for the State Legislature.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 17.—The struggle for the mastery in the incoming legislature goes merrily on. McDonald, of Jackson county, whose seat has been contested by the democracy on the ground that he (McDonald) carried to the election and used four hundred silver dollars, is in the city. He says that the meat of the whole charge lies in the fact that the democracy has reigned in the district for thirty years, and their defeat at this crisis has so enraged them that they are willing to charge or do anything that promises to break the force of the republican victory. He says that the only bribery he knows of was on the part of certain democratic county officers, who carried to one township a "swig" of whisky and $200 in money. It is claimed that the democracy have discovered another republican legislator who can be shown to not be a citizen of the United States. The state committee is in possession of so many allegations regarding ineligibility of republicans-elect that it is not disposed to give out the name of the legislator in question until it has investigated the charges made. There will be about twenty contested seats, and many of the counties in which papers are filed are boiling with excitement, which in due time will be transferred to the legislature. Chairman Henderson says to-day that the republicans will begin the matinee by throwing out Meagher, democrat, Vigo county, and added: "Then the meeting will be open and presiding will begin." He refused to unfold the democratic policy, but it is an open secret that for every democrat of the lower house unseated by the republicans, who control that branch, a republican will be fired out of the senate chamber. This policy seems to be endorsed by the democracy throughout the state. As the democrats have contested more seats than the republicans, they will have somewhat the advantage. The outlook for a rumper of large dimensions continues favorable from every standpoint, unless the republicans yield to the cold fate of two democratic majority on joint ballot.

For commissioner of Elkhart county, Albert Yates and Henry Bemenderter each received the same number of votes at the late election, and Governor Gray has ordered a special election for Tuesday, the 30th inst., to decide who shall serve.

Firemen Hurt.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 17.—Burroughs Bro.'s ware house burned to-day and five firemen were fatally injured by falling ladders.

A conflagration at Durham, N. C., involved a loss of about $400,000.

THE MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Wheat, 1@1c higher, moderately active; No. 2 red, December, 85 1/2 @ 86. Corn, shade stronger, moderately active, 44 1/2 @ 45. Oats, steady and quiet, at 33 @ 34.

CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—Wheat, closed dull and somewhat weaker, at 73 1/2. Corn, easier, at 36. Oats, easy, 26.

A GENIUS DIES.

Carl Ide, the Linguist and Musician, Found Dead in His Apartments This Morning.

Carl Ide was not known to many people in Fort Wayne. His friendships and attachments were few, his life a riddle, and his genius was hidden from people who might admire it. He came to this country with Max Frankenstein, leaving his mother at Hamburg, where she still resides. Since then Ide and Frankenstein have been fast and constant friends. About a year ago they bought from Mrs. Otto Loeffler a little drug store on West Jefferson street. This was not congenial to Ide and he went to Florida, only to come home again and join his friend. Ide had no established occupation and taught music and languages as his fancy prompted. He was a born genius and a finished scholar.

His father was tutor to the royal family of Russia, and under him the present czar of the Russias was instructed. Young Ide had the advantages of his royal associates, and recourse to the courts and libraries of the imperial palace. He mingled with the princes and potentates of the old world, and left the iron gates of St. Petersburg with fortune smiling on him, as he pictured, and only awaiting his touch in the world before him. He was a finished musician and master of arts. He was fluent in his native—the Russian—tongue, and knew the Latin, Greek, French, Spanish, German and Italian languages as a master does. He acquired an available knowledge of English and understood the sciences. With these advantages who could have predicted the flight of the young man to fame? He was just twenty-seven years of age, in the prime of life, and although suffering from a deformity since childhood, he was active, genial and a rare companion.

A short while ago Mr. Frankenstein and his present wife purchased Schott's drug store and Mr. Ide engaged parlors above the apothecary room and lived apparently at ease, although it was hinted he was disappointed in love, both he and Mr. Frankenstein having sought the hand of the latter gentleman's present wife.

Some eight days ago Ide was taken ill and Dr. A. J. Laubach diagnosed his ailment as emanating from the heart. The complications of that delicate and vital structure continued to increase in severity until within the last few days he had to be constantly attended.

Last night his friend Harry Gibford watched at his bedside and left him at 7:30 this morning, resting apparently easy. An hour later Mr. Frankenstein went to his friend's room and found him cold in death.

His physician was sent for and his friends assembled to mourn the loss of so agreeable a gentleman. He leaves no property outside of his personal effects. His aged mother will be notified of her son's death by cable, and the young man will be given a nice burial.

This afternoon Drs. M. F. Porter, W. P. Wherry, A. J. Laubach, Howard McCullough and K. K. Wheelock began a post-mortem examination of the remains, and Dr. J. M. Dinnen, the coroner, will abide by their decision.

THE CHARM.

Christian G. Kistler Pulled in a Third Time and Held by Uncle Sam.

Christian G. Kistler is a prosperous resident of Ligonier and is worth considerable money. He has been a sort of huckster and disposed of leaf and plug tobacco without paying the necessary tribute to Uncle Sam. Twice before was he summoned by United States Commissioner Harper, but the evidence was not sufficient to hold him. Inspector Ohneck took the matter in hand and yesterday swore out a third warrant for Mr. Kistler's arrest, and produced evidence enough to clinch him for violating the revenue law. Commissioner Harper bound him over in the sum of $200 and the accused furnished bail and will employ counsel to defend himself.

Dr. Bundy, of the Xenia colored college, is in the city raising the money for that worthy institution.

THE CITY NEWS.

Ten days is long enough to get a fowl fat, a farmer says.

Miss Ada Gray will produce "A Ring of Iron" at the Temple next Monday.

Major Charles A. Munson is at Ypsilanti, Mich., to remain about two weeks.

Presiding Elder C. W. Lynch will preside at a Methodist Episcopal quarterly meeting, at Huntington, next Sunday.

The imitable Irish comedian, Dan Sully, and his splendid company, will appear at the Temple to-night in "Daddy Nolan."

Mr. Platt J. Wise, esquire, Daniel Harding, Sam Miller and others are attending a meeting of the state Odd Fellows, at Indianapolis.

The advance sale of seats for Sully's "Daddy Nolan" is very large and it is probable that he will be greeted with a crowded house.

The new iron fence about the McCulloch park, on Broadway, is in course of construction at the foundry and will be put up this year.

Rudy C. Reinwald has purchased the interest of his brother George in the South Calhoun street cigar store. George will work for Rudy.

John Emerick, a prominent young man of Pleasant township, died yesterday of consumption. The funeral will take place to-morrow.

Mayor Muhler dismissed the case of assault and battery against Mrs. Cramer. He lectured the woman to train her children to better advantage.

State Auditor Rice received no material benefit from his treatment for rheumatism at Chicago, and has gone to Hot Springs for a thorough course.

The world renowned J. K. Emmet will present "Fritz, Our Cousin German," at the Temple Wednesday, Nov. 24th. This has never been played here before.

The literary society of the Congregational church will meet, Friday evening, at the residence of Dr. W. B. Knapp, corner of Washington and Van Buren streets.

Dan Sully and his party present "Daddy Nolan," a rollicking Irish drama, at the Temple, to-night. To-morrow night, the amusing "Corner Grocery" is booked.

Union Thanksgiving services will be held by the Congregational, Baptist, Grace Reformed and Christian churches, in the Baptist church. The sermon will be preached by the Rev. J. C. Cromer, of the Congregational church.

Frank Stutzenburger, a young man well and favorably known, died last night of consumption, at his home, No. 383 East Washington street. He was thirty-seven years of age, and his funeral is announced for to-morrow morning at 9:30 from the Cathedral.

Services at the R. R. Y. M. C. A. were well attended, last evening. The rain did not deter the people from coming, and they were well repaid. The services will be conducted by Rev. J. P. Stewart, this evening, at 7:30 o'clock. All are invited. Subject, "From Persecution to Prayer."

Every season the English sparrows get more numerous in this city, and their rapid growth and pugnacious ways have driven the gentle and domestic martin entirely out of the business center. These sparrows breed by the thousands in the court house, and are great friends of tinnies, whom they give employment by destroying the water spouting. The sparrow is getting to be a nuisance in more than one sense.

Mayor Muhler is asked to meet with the general committee on the centennial celebration, at Washington, December 7. He is a member of the committee, and the object is to arrange for the three expositions given under their jurisdiction, to consult the foreign ministers and call on President Cleveland. Mayor Muhler will attend the meeting, which is to convene at Willard's hotel.

This morning, Mr. Barney Niezer, the auditor elect, made a formal demand for possession of his office. Owing to the question of the tenure of Mr. Griebel's term, under the law changing the election from October to November, the gentlemen at once and amicably agreed to go before Judge O'Rourke for his opinion, and at 4 o'clock this afternoon the matter was being considered in the court. The suit is purely friendly, and it will obviate all future controversies about the question.

A married man who will spend his evenings in a saloon away from his wife and children is not fit to be called a man. We have just learned of a person who moves in respectable society, who has a delicate wife and several little children, who spends almost every evening in a saloon and never returns home until 11 or 12 o'clock, leaving his wife and children alone. We say shame on such a man. Even the dumb brutes do not treat their kin so mean.

Dr. Kent K. Wheelock lectures at Wabash to-morrow night.

Mr. Wm. Meyer, the druggist, went to Defiance, Ohio, yesterday.

Judge O'Rourke will decide the case of James Chapman vs. Sol Chapman to-morrow.

The contractor has completed the work of macadamizing Cass street and will finish Wells street this week.

Telegraph Operator Dan Shea, who has been fingering the keys at Peru for the past two weeks, is back again in his cosy office in freight house.

Mrs. W. C. Stockton, of Bluffton, was in the city a short time yesterday, on her way home from a six weeks' visit with relatives at Philadelphia, Pa.

Superintendent Boserup this morning received from the supervising architect at Washington plans for the addition to the new government building here.

Revenue Inspector Ohneck will shortly inspect some of the oleomargarine sold here. No grocer has yet taken out a license to sell the stuff in this city.

William Scott, a carpenter living on West Wayne street, badly lacerated a leg this morning, and Dr. C. B. Stemen is giving the limb a surgeon's attention.

Police court was a blank this morning and Mayor Muhler's only caller was a colored minister who wanted assistance to erect a college for colored people in Ohio.

J. E. Rundot, a Pittsburg fireman, drew $400 in the Louisiana lottery this month. He has been exceedingly lucky and his monthly winnings amount to over $2,000.

The closing service of the week of prayer will be held in the Third Presbyterian church on Sabbath evening at 7:30. Rev. D. S. Kennedy will preach upon the subject, "Decision." Do not fail to hear him.

The funeral of A. C. McDonald, son of Col. I. B. McDonald, occurred at Columbia City, at 2 o'clock, to-day. Mr. James McDonald, proprietor of the Ligonier Banner, and son of Col. I. B. McDonald, and Mr. W. G. Brown, a member of the cornet band of Ligonier, went to Columbia City, yesterday, to attend the funeral. The deceased was drum major of the Ligonier band.

The Salem Reformed church opened last night in Capt. J. B. White's building, corner of Calhoun and Wayne streets. Notwithstanding the disagreeable weather there was a very large attendance and the ladies took much pride and pleasure in showing the elegant fancy articles and providing refreshments and a good time for the merry throng. The fair will not close until Saturday and promises to be a great attraction.

The grand encampment I. O. O. F. of Indiana began its annual session at Odd Fellows' hall, Indianapolis, yesterday, with an attendance of about 400 representatives. B. F. Foster, grand scribe, in his annual report, showed that during the term ending June 30, 1886, there had been 457 initiations in the order. There are at present 138 encampments in the state, a gain of three since the last report, and 5,794 members, a gain of 352. During the term 489 patriarchs and 9 widowed families have been relieved, $7,541.25 having been paid for the former and $59.75 for the latter, $1,464 for burying the dead and $459 for other charitable purposes, making the total amount of relief $9,525.53. The resources of the encampments are $65,303.20; the receipts of the year, $22,083.92, and the disbursements, including relief, $17,804.84, leaving a present balance in the treasury of the grand encampment of $3,982.45.

Never Thirst Again.

During a special mission in a town in Ohio, a man who had been very irreligious was awakened to serious reflection, but for some time he contrived to conceal his feelings from his wife, who was a praying woman. One evening she left him in charge of his little daughter, and when she had gone his anxiety of mind became so great that he walked to and fro in the room in an agony of agitation. The little girl noticed the deep feeling under which he was laboring, and asked:

"What ails you, father?" Her father made no reply, and endeavored to gain the mastery of his emotion, but all in vain. He was face to face with the conscience whose warnings he had so long defied, and now the hour had come when, after its long silence, it was speaking, and that very clearly and solemnly. His child looked up into his face sympathizingly, and inquired with all the earnestness which true filial affection could prompt:

"Father, if you were dry, would you not go and get a drink of water?" The words had a strange effect upon the father, simple though they were. Their very strength indeed was in their simplicity; and he started as though a voice from heaven had spoken to him. He thought of his thirsty soul, and how it was really parched for the want of the waters of that living fountain open for sinners in the gospel of the Lord Jesus.

Dear readers, have you been to Jesus, and has he made you happy by giving you to drink of those living streams which can alone satisfy your heart?

Life a Failure.

A gentle of high standing, a lawyer, a politician, a man of talents, and, as the world estimates, a man who was successful in all his undertakings, was suddenly arrested by disease, and soon brought to the close of life.

As it was evident that he could live but a few days, he was asked by a friend how he felt as he looked back upon his past life. And the answer, coming from a man of sense and thought, with eternity full in his view, was striking and memorable. "With all its success, I now see and feel that my life has been a failure. I have not gained one of the great ends for which life was given, and now it is too late to gain them."

What a thought--what a feeling--what a prospect for the hour when life is closing and eternity is to be entered, and character and destiny and state are to be forever fixed. What a lesson to impress on all right views of the great ends for which life was given, and to lead every one so to live here prepared for the life beyond this world.

A Family in Need.

To the Editor of the SENTINEL. There is probably no person, not excepting even the minister who preaches the gospel of Him who was Himself poor, having no where to lay His head, nor the wherewith to pay his taxes, who practiced His medical charities--raising the dead, restoring sight, etc.--not with coupe and driver, but by "hoofing" about from place to place; I say there is probably no person who sees as much poverty, wretchedness, woe and misery as the physician, who, of all other classes of people, is the least able financially to succor, aid, comfort and relieve the distressed. I therefore thought it not inopportune, in view of the near approach of winter, to inform the many Christian people of Fort Wayne, who have often realized that it is much better to give than to receive, that there is a most golden opportunity at No. 199 Broadway, to give to a most wretched family. Just call and convince yourselves.

TERRIFIC BLIZZARD.

It Sweeps Over Some of the Western States, Seriously Impeding Travel.

St. Paul, Nov. 17.—After midnight a genuine blizzard set in, and this morning the people found the streets and sidewalks so badly blocked that travel was next to impossible. The reports indicate that the blizzard began in western Minnesota and swept east and south through Wisconsin and Iowa. Railroad travel is greatly impeded and street cars find it almost impossible to run. The wind is blowing hard and drifting snow as fast as the streets and walks are cleared. No such storm has occurred so early in the season for years.

Milwaukee, Nov. 17.—A special from Green Bay says the barge Dixon, Captain Robinson, of the Justice Field's tow, founded off Keweenaw this morning. Two seamen were drowned. Another of Field's barges is riding the breakers and flying a signal of distress. The crew of the schooner Ishpeming are awaiting orders at Escanaba.

Later advices from Keweenaw state that the barge Emerald, another tug of Justice Field's command, founded at noon. Five lives lost.

St. Ignace, Mich., Nov. 17.—During a terrible gale and snow storm last night the schooner P. S. Matiah, loaded with coal, ran on the beach and will go to pieces. Another schooner is ashore across the point, four miles from here.

The American Humane Association in Convention.

Cincinnati, Nov. 17.—The State Humane association, composed of delegates from the various State Humane societies, or Societies for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals and Children, met at the Grand hotel in annual convention today, with G. E. Gordon in the chair. About fifty delegates were present. Among the number is Mrs. Hendricks, widow of the late Vice President Hendricks. After formal addresses of welcome by the mayor and others, the association listened to the reading of reports of the work accomplished during the past year.

MURDER!

One Villain Who Comes Out First Best in a Domestic Drama.

Windsor, Ont., Nov. 17.—Richard O'Brien, a Canadian Pacific railroad employee, was found by Charles Williams, a storekeeper, in bed with Mrs. Williams Sunday night. Williams tried to horse-whip O'Brien, whereupon the latter shot and killed Williams and the latter's aged father and mother and two little children, slaying by slaying Mrs. Williams, who died soon after. O'Brien is in jail.

Fire Record.

St. Louis, Nov. 17.—A fire last night in the Canali Lumber company's yards on Lombard and Second streets, caused a loss of $20,000; fully covered by insurance.

PHIL ARMOUR.

An Attempt to Poison the King of Pork Packers.

Chicago, Nov. 17.—The statement that an attempt was made a few days since to poison Phil Armour by two men who are alleged to be sympathizers with the stock yards strikers, was contradicted by that gentleman. "I don't care to talk about it," said Mr. Armour, "at least not just at present. You may say, however, that this story is quite true."

Masonic Gathering.

St. Louis, Nov. 17.—Delegates from all relief boards in the Masonic order in the United States to the Masonic Relief association met this morning at the Southern hotel to discuss plans for more efficient work. The object of the association is to prevent the commission of fraud upon subordinate lodges by those who are not worthy of relief.

SALOON MEN.

They Are Driven From the Liquor Traffic in Iowa by Court Injunctions.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 17.—The injunction cases in this term of court are about finished. One hundred and two permanent injunctions have been granted. A large proportion of the parties enjoined have gone out of the business since the temperance writes were issued, and many have left the city. In twenty-three of these cases writs of abatement have just been placed in the sheriff's hands, and it is expected that after he has done his duty, in accordance with the orders therein contained, open saloons in Sioux City will be a thing of the past. The saloon men are becoming more and more inclined to obey injunctions of the court without any hostile demonstrations.

OVER AT LAST.

The Great Stock Yards Strike Ended and Quiet Reigns Once More.

Omaha, Nov. 17.—The situation at the stock yards is perfectly quiet and orderly this morning. The old men are going back to work as fast as places are found for them, and there are no indications of further difficulty. An order has been issued relieving the First regiment from duty. The Second regiment will remain a few days longer.

Iron and Lead Discovers in Indiana.

Wabash, Ind., Nov. 17.—Both iron and lead ore have been discovered at Denver, fifteen miles northwest of this city. The ore appears on the surface in immense quantities, and can easily be mined. It assays nearly ninety per cent. pure. A mining company made up of leading citizens is being formed.

FIRE DODILY.

Forcible Ejection of an Indiana Auditor.

Columbus, Ind., Nov. 17.—It seems that the election troubles in Indiana have just begun. Yesterday, at Shoals, Mike Tracey, the democratic auditor elect of Martin county, demanded possession of the office, which was refused by Colonel Brooks, the old auditor, and a republican, who claims that his time does not expire till the 1st of March. Tracey at once secured help, and after a stormy time ejected Brooks from the office, which he now holds by barricade.

The commissioners of Martin county also, yesterday, appointed Thomas Gates treasurer. Young Gates is the son of John C. Gates, elected treasurer at the last election, but was burned to a crisp in a hotel that was set fire on the night of the election, while sleeping with auditor Tracey, who occupied by jumping from a second story window.

Distemper Among Indiana Draft Horses.

Decatur, Ind., Nov. 17.—Several cases of distemper of a malignant type have broken out in the western part of Adams and Wells counties. This section of the state has the finest draft horses in the west, and should this disease spread, an enormous loss will, the result will be very disastrous.

Mrs. Harriet Clifton, Mrs. E. L. Clifton and daughter, Miss Hyatt, are expected home this evening.

Justice Ryan fined Monroe Slater for striking a child of Wm. Nichols.

Doris H. Arnold and Annie Powers have been licensed to wed.

As a suppressing gag, "Ring off" has taken the place of "Give us a rest."

Gen. Huber is charged with stealing a ring from Emma Stapleton and the grand jury will attend to him.

Visitors at his office are smoking with the genial Sheriff Nelson to-day.

Arba J. Burrus, who attempted to murder Mrs. Ray Goode and Miss Lillian T. Walker in front of Dan's mercantile agency at Chicago, the evening of Oct. 28, 1885, and who shot a Chinaman in Fort Wayne, was yesterday afternoon brought into Judge Anthony's court for trial, having been confined in the county jail for over one year at Chicago. He pleaded guilty, but has not been sentenced.

Rev. T. J. Butler, D. D., of Chicago, is in the city, the guest of Bishop Dwenger. Rev. Dr. Butler lectured in Liberty hall St. Patrick's day, two years ago, to an immense audience, and both he and his lecture are favorably remembered by Fort Wayne people. During the late civil war the Rev. Father was for nearly three years chaplain in the famous Irish brigade, commanded by the gallant young hero, General Mulligan, and went through the Missouri campaign, and also that of West Virginia and the engagements about Shennandoah, Cumberland, Norfolk and other places. The Rev. Doctor is returning to Chicago on his way home from a three months' tour of Europe.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Senator Voorhees on the Indiana Contests.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 17.—The correspondent of the Louisville Courier-Journal telegraphs his paper:

Senator Voorhees has returned from the perturbed and anxious land of Hoosier. In answer to the inquiry of your correspondent to-day about the legislature, he said:

"We have the legislature by two majorities on joint ballot, and I have no doubt but that we will hold it."

"But suppose, senator, that the republicans throw out enough members of the house to reverse the majority?"

"Yes, but I do not think they will dare to do anything of that kind. They know very well that it would not be submitted to by the people, irrespective of party."

I trust that Senator Voorhees is correct in his opinion, but I suspect that he is more anxious and doubtful about the situation than he is inclined to admit. Senator Voorhees knows very well that the desperate gang of republican leaders who control the party interests in Indiana will dare to do anything to keep him Harrison in his seat. If the Indiana democratic leaders lose a single trick at Indiana this winter they will lose the senator that they are justly entitled to.

SUSTAINED.

The Democratic Party Secured a Heavy Endorsement in November.

Philadelphia Times.

Taking the vote of the states as cast this year for state officers, and for congressmen where no state officers were to be elected, the electoral vote of the Union would foot up as follows:

Dem.	Rep.
Alabama.....10	Illinois.....12
Arkansas.....7	Indiana.....15
California.....13	Iowa.....13
Colorado.....8	Kansas.....9
Connecticut.....3	Maine.....9
Delaware.....3	Massachusetts.....14
Florida.....4	Michigan.....13
Georgia.....12	Minnesota.....12
Idaho.....3	Nebraska.....5
Louisiana.....8	Nevada.....3
Maryland.....8	New Hampshire.....4
Mississippi.....10	Ohio.....23
Missouri.....16	Oregon.....3
New Jersey.....9	Pennsylvania.....36
New York.....36	Rhode Island.....4
North Carolina.....11	Vermont.....3
South Carolina.....9	Virginia.....12
Tennessee.....12	Wisconsin.....11
Texas.....13	West Virginia.....6
Total.....203

It will be seen that the democrats carried twenty states and the republicans eighteen. Oregon is classed with the republicans, although the people elected a democratic governor this year by a large majority, but it was admitted on a local issue. The republican congressman was elected by the usual party majority, and the state may be classed as republican. The other state that is rather an accident in the democratic column, is Colorado, where the democrats carried the governor and the legislature, but on local issues. California is very close, but her governor and legislature are democratic, and the state is fairly entitled to be so classed.

Virginia is classed in the republican column with her twelve electoral votes. There was no state ticket elected there this year, and there was a general break up in the election of congressmen over the tariff and internal revenue issues, by which the republicans have a majority of the delegation and an apparent majority of the popular vote. It is entirely safe to say that Virginia would have voted democratic had there been a president to elect, and that Colorado would have voted republican.

Changing the footing by the transfer of Virginia to the democratic and Colorado to the republican column, the electoral vote of this year would stand—democrats, 211; republicans, 190, allowing Indiana to be republican and California democratic, both of which are about equally doubtful.

THE STATE.

What is Said in the Field of Politics and News About Us.

The statistics from the Indiana election indicate that far too many democrats in the Hoosier state failed to do their duty November 2. There is a falling off of nearly 30,000 votes, and the republican figures do not indicate that they went to that party.

Weather Indications.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—The weather indications are as follows:

Kentucky, rain, decidedly colder, with cold wave.

Ohio, rain or snow, colder winds, with cold wave.

Indiana and Michigan, rain or snow, decidedly colder.

Professor Foster predicts that a storm of considerable force will prevail in the central portion of the United States this week, covering the Mississippi river about Thursday.

INDIANA.

The Contest for the State Legislature.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 17.—The struggle for the mastery in the incoming legislature goes merely on. McDonald, of Jackson county, whose seat has been contested by the democracy on the ground that he (McDonald) carried to the election and used four hundred silver dollars, is in the city. He says that the meat of the whole charge lies in the fact that the democracy has reigned in the district for thirty years, and their defeat at this crisis has so enraged them that they are willing to charge or do anything that promises to break the force of the republican victory. He says that the only bribery he knows of was on the part of certain democratic county officers, who carried to one township a "twink" of whiskey and $200 in money.

It is claimed that the democracy have discovered another republican legislator who can be shown to not be a citizen of the United States. The state committee is in possession of so many allegations regarding indigibility of republicans-elect that it is not disposed to give out the name of the legislator in question until it has investigated the charges made. There will be about twenty contested seats, and many of the counties in which papers are filed are boiling with excitement, which in due time will be transferred to the legislature. Chairman Henderson says to-day that the republicans will begin the matter by throwing out Meagher, democrat, Vigo county, and added: "Then the meeting will be open and preaching will begin." He refused to unfold the democratic policy, but it is an open secret that for every democrat of the lower house unseated by the republicans, who control that branch, a republican will be fired out of the senate chamber. This policy seems to be endorsed by the democracy throughout the state. As the democrats have contested more seats than the republicans, they will have somewhat the advantage. The outlook for a rampart of large dimensions continues favorable from every standpoint, unless the republicans yield to the cold fate of two democratic majorities on joint ballot.

For commissioner of Elkhart county, Albert Yates and Henry Bonamander each received the same number of votes at the late election, and Governor Gray has ordered a special election for Tuesday, the 30th inst., to decide who shall serve.

Firemen Hurt.

A conflagration at Durham, N. C., involved a loss of about $400,000.

THE MARKETS.

New York, Nov. 17.—Wheat, 10 1/2 higher, moderately active; No. 2 red, 84 1/2; No. 3, 84 1/2. Corn, 44 1/2; steady and quiet, at 34 1/2.

AMONG.

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—Wheat, closed dull and somewhat weaker, at 73 1/2. Corn, easier, at 35 1/2; oats, 25 1/2.

A GENIUS DIES.

Carl Ide, the Linguist and Musician, Found Dead in His Apartments This Morning.

Carl Ide was not known to many people in Fort Wayne. His friendships and attachments were few, his life a riddle, and his genius was hidden from people who might admire it. He came to this country with Max Frankenstein, leaving his mother at Hamburg, where she still resides. Since then Ide and Frankenstein have been fast and constant friends. About a year ago they bought from Mrs. Otto Lefler a little drug store on West Jefferson street. This was not congenial to Ide and he went to Florida, only to come home again and join his friend. Ide had no established occupation and taught music and languages as his fancy prompted. He was a born genius and a finished scholar.

His father was tutor to the royal family of Russia, and under him the present czar of the Russian was instructed. Young Ide had the advantages of his royal associates, and resorted to the courts and libraries of the imperial palace. He mingled with the princes and potentates of the old world, and left the iron gates of St. Petersburg with fortune smiling on him, as he pictured, and only awaiting his touch in the world before him. He was a finished musician and master of art.

He was fluent in his native—the Russian—tongue, and knew the Latin, Greek, French, Spanish, German and Italian languages as a master does. He acquired an available knowledge of English and understood the sciences. With these advantages who could have predicted the flight of the young man to fame? He was just twenty-seven years of age, in the prime of life, and although suffering from a deformity since childhood, he was active, genial and a rare companion.

A short while ago Mr. Frankenstein and his present wife purchased Schott's drug store and Mr. Ide engaged premises above the apothecary room and lived apparently at ease, although it was hinted he was disappointed in love, both he and Mr. Frankenstein having sought the hand of the latter gentleman's present wife.

Some eight days ago Ide was taken ill and Dr. A. J. Lambach diagnosed his ailment as emanating from the heart. The complications of that delicate and vital structure continued to increase in severity until within the last few days he had to be constantly attended.

Last night his friend Harry Gifford watched at his bedside and left him at 7:30 this morning, resting apparently easy. An hour later Mr. Frankenstein went to his friend's room and found him cold in death.

His physician was sent for and his friends assembled to mourn the loss of an agreeable a gentleman. He leaves no property outside of his personal effects. His aged mother will be notified of her son's death by cable, and the young man will be given a nice burial.

This afternoon Drs. M. F. Porter, W. P. Wherry, A. J. Lambach, Howard McCullough and K. K. Wirclock began a post-mortem examination of the remains, and Dr. J. M. Dinneen, the coroner, will abide by their decision.

THE CHARM.

Christian C. Kistler Felled in a Third Time and Held by Uncle Sam.

Christian C. Kistler is a prosperous resident of Ligonier and is worth considerable money. He has been a sort of broker and disposed of land and pig tobacco without paying the necessary tribute to Uncle Sam. Twice before was he unimpaired by United States Commissioner Harper, but the evidence was not sufficient to hold him. Inspector Onussek took the matter in hand and yesterday swore out a third warrant for Mr. Kistler's arrest, and produced evidence enough to clinch him for violating the revenue law. Commissioner Harper bound him over in the sum of $200 and the accused furnished bail and will employ counsel to defend himself.

THE CITY NEWS.

Two days is long enough to get a fowl fat, a farmer says.

Miss Ada Gray will produce "A King of Iron" at the Temple next Monday.

Major Charles A. Munson is at Ypsanti, Mich., to remain about two weeks. Presiding Elder C. W. Lynch will preside at a Methodist Episcopal quarterly meeting, at Huntington, next Sunday.

The imitable Irish comedian, Dan Sully, and his splendid company, will appear at the Temple to-night in "Daddy Nolan."

Mr. Platt J. Wise, esquire, Daniel Harding, Sam Miller and others are attending a meeting of the state Old Fellows, at Indianapolis.

The advance sale of seats for Sully's "Daddy Nolan" is very large and it is probable that he will be greeted with a crowded house.

The new iron fence about the McCulloch park, on Broadway, is in course of construction at the foundry and will be put up this year.

Andy C. Reinwald has purchased the interest of his brother George in the South Calhoun street garage. George will work for Andy.

John Emrick, a prominent young man of Pleasant township, died yesterday of consumption. The funeral will take place to-morrow.

Mayor Muhler dismissed the case of assault and battery against Mrs. Craner. He lectured the woman to train her children to better advantage.

State Auditor Rice received no material benefit from his treatment for rheumatism at Chicago, and has gone to Hot Springs for a thorough course.

The world renowned J. K. Emmet will present "Pitts, Our Cousin German," at the Temple Wednesday, Nov. 24th. This has never been played here before.

The literary society of the Congregational church will meet, Friday evening, at the residence of Dr. W. B. Knapp, corner of Washington and Van Buren streets.

Dan Sully and his party present "Daddy Nolan," a rollicking Irish drama, at the Temple, to-night. To-morrow night, the amusing "Corner Grocery" is booked.

Union Thanksgiving services will be held by the Congregational, Baptist, Grace Reformed and Christian churches, in the Baptist church. The sermon will be preached by the Rev. J. C. Craner, of the Congregational church.

Frank Stenzinger, a young man well and favorably known, died last night of consumption, at his home, No. 383 East Washington street. He was thirty-seven years of age, and his funeral is announced for to-morrow morning at 9:30 from the Cathedral.

Services at the R. R. Y. M. C. A. were well attended, last evening. The rain did not deter the people from coming, and they were well repaid. The services will be conducted by Rev. J. P. Stewart, this evening, at 7:30 o'clock. All are invited. Subject, "From Persecution to Prayer."

Every season the English sparrows get more numerous in this city, and their rapid growth and pugnacious ways have driven the gentle and domestic martin entirely out of the business center. These sparrows breed by the thousands in the court houses, and are great friends of farmers, whom they give employment by destroying the water-potting. The sparrow is getting to be a nuisance in more than one sense.

Mayor Muhler is asked to meet with the general committee on the centennial celebration, at Washington, December 7. He is a member of the committee, and the object is to arrange for the three expositions given under their jurisdiction, to consult the foreign ministers and call on President Cleveland. Mayor Muhler will attend the meeting, which is to convene at Willard's hotel.

This morning, Mr. Barney Niezer, the auditor elect, made a formal demand for possession of his office. Owing to the question of the tenure of Mr. Griebel's term, under the law changing the election from October to November, the gentlemen at once and amicably agreed to go before Judge O'Rourke for his opinion, and at 4 o'clock this afternoon the matter was being considered in the court. The suit is purely friendly, and it will obviate all future controversies about the question.

A married man who will spend his evenings in a saloon away from his wife and children is not fit to be called a man. We have just learned of a person who moves in respectable society, who has a delicate wife and several little children, who spends almost every evening in a saloon and never returns home until 11 or 12 o'clock, leaving his wife and children alone. We say shame on such a man. Even the dumb brutes do not treat their kin so mean.

Dr. Kant K. Wheelock lectures at Walush to-morrow night.

Mr. Wm. Meyer, the druggist, went to Delaware, Ohio, yesterday.

Judge O'Tourke will decide the case of James Chapman vs. Sol Chapman to-morrow.

The contractor has completed the work of macadamizing Cass street and will finish Wells street this week.

Telegraph Operator Dan Shes, who has been suggesting the keys at Peru for the past two weeks, is back again in his cozy office in freight house.

Mrs. W. C. Stockton, of Bluffton, was in the city a short time yesterday, on her way home from a six weeks' visit with relatives at Philadelphia, Pa.

Superintendent Boscher this morning received from the supervising architect at Washington plans for the addition to the new government building here.

Revenue Inspector Ohnack will shortly inspect some of the oleomargarine sold here. No grocer has yet taken out a license to sell the stuff in this city.

William Scott, a carpenter living on West Wayne street, badly lacerated a leg this morning, and Dr. C. B. Stemen is giving the limb a surgeon's attention.

Police court was a blank this morning and Mayor Muhler's only caller, was colored minister who wanted assistance to erect a college for colored people in Ohio.

J. E. Rondet, a Pittsburg brewer, drew $400 in the Louisiana lottery this month. He has been exceedingly lucky and his monthly winnings amount to over $2,000.

The closing service of the week of prayer will be held in the Third Presbyterian church on Sabbath evening at 7:30. Rev. D. S. Kennedy will preside upon the subject, "Decision." Do not fail to hear him.

The funeral of A. C. McDonald, son of Col. I. B. McDonald, occurred at Columbia City, at 2 o'clock, to-day. Mr. James McDonald, proprietor of the Ligonier branch, and son of Col. I. B. McDonald, and Mr. W. G. Brown, a member of the correct band of Ligonier, went to Columbia City, yesterday, to attend the funeral. The deceased was drum major of the Ligonier band.

The Salem Reformed church opened last night in Capt. J. H. White's building, corner of Calhoun and Wayne streets. Notwithstanding the disagreeable weather there was a very large attendance and the ladies took much pride and pleasure in showing the elegant fancy articles and providing refreshments and a good time for the merry throng. The fair will not close until Saturday and promises to be a great attraction.

The grand encampment I. O. O. F. of Indiana began its annual session at Odd Fellows' hall, Indianapolis, yesterday, with an attendance of about 450 representatives. B. F. Foster, grand surbur, in his annual report, showed that during the term ending June 30, 1886, there had been 147 initiations in the order. There are at present 138 encampments in the state, a gain of three since the last report, and 6,794 members, a gain of 352. During the term 489 pairwishes and 9 widowed families have been relieved, $7,541.25 having been paid for the former and $59.75 for the latter, $1,464 for burying the dead and $499 for other charitable purposes, making the total amount of relief $9,525.53. The resources of the encampments are $65,309.20; the receipts of the year, $22,083.92; and the disbursements, including relief, $17,804.54, leaving a present balance in the treasury of the grand encampment of $3,982.45.

Never Thirst Again.

During a special mission in a town in Ohio, a man who had been very irreligious was awakened to serious reflection, but for some time he contrived to conceal his feelings from his wife, who was a praying woman. One evening she left him in charge of his little daughter, and when she had gone his anxiety of mind became so great that he walked to and fro in the room in agony of agitation. The little girl noticed the deep feeling under which he was laboring, and asked: "What ails you, father?" Her father made no reply, and endeavored to gain the mastery of his emotion, but all in vain. He was face to face with the conscience whose warnings he had so long defied, and now the hour had come when, after its long silence, it was speaking, and that very clearly and solemnly. His child looked up into his face sympathizingly, and inquired with all the earnestness which true filial affection could prompt: "Father, if you were dry, would you not go and get a drink of water?" The words had a strange effect upon the father, simple though they were. Their very strength indeed was in their simplicity; and he started as though a voice from heaven had spoken to him. He thought of his thirsty soul, and how it was really parched for the want of the waters of that living fountain open for sinners in the gospel of the Lord Jesus. Dear readers, have you been to Jesus, and has he made you happy by giving you to drink of those living streams which can alone satisfy your heart?

Life a Fallure. A gentle of high standing, a lawyer, a politician, a man of talents, and, as the world estimate, a man who was successful in all his undertakings, was suddenly arrested by disease, and soon brought to the close of life.

As it was evident that he could live but a few days, he was asked by a friend how he felt as he looked back upon his past life. And the answer, coming from a man of sense and thought, with dignity fell in his view, was striking and memorable. "With all its successes, I now see and feel that my life has been a failure. I have not gained one of the great ends for which life was given, and now it is too late to gain them."

What a thought--what a feeling--what a prospect for the hour when life is closing and eternity is to be entered, and character and destiny and state are to be forever fixed. What a lesson to impress on all right minds of the great ends for which life was given, and to lead every one so to live here prepared for the life beyond this world.

A Family in Need.

To the Editor of the SENTINEL.

There is probably no person, not excepting even the minister who preaches the gospel of Him who was Himself poor, having no where to lay His head, nor the wherewith to pay his taxes, who practiced His medical charities, raising the dead, restoring sight, etc.--not with corpse and driver, but by "hooking" about from place to place. I say there is probably no person who sees as much poverty, wretchedness, woe and misery as the physician, who, of all other classes of people, is the least able financially to succor, aid, comfort and relieve the distressed. I therefore thought it not inopportune, in view of the near approach of winter, to inform the many Christian people of Fort Wayne, who have often realized that it is much better to give than to receive, that there is a most golden opportunity at No. 170 Broadway, to give to a most wretched family. Just call and convince yourselves.
